

Enterprise Resignation & Notice Period Guidelines

SYNTHETIC SAMPLE DOCUMENT - FOR ACADEMIC RAG DEMONSTRATION ONLY

1. Resignation Notice Periods by Designation

Confirmed permanent employees must submit written resignation notice through the Enterprise HR Portal. Standard notice periods are: - Individual Contributors & Engineers: 30 calendar days. - Team Leads, Engineering Managers & Directors: 60 calendar days. - Executive & C-Suite Officers: 90 calendar days. During the 90-day probation period, the mandatory notice period is 15 calendar days for all positions.

2. Resignation Acceptance and Handover Protocol

Upon resignation submission, the employee and supervisor must draft a formal Knowledge Transfer (KT) schedule. All project documentation, code credentials, and active tasks must be handed over to designated team members at least 5 business days prior to the last working day.

3. Early Release and Notice Period Buyout

Early release or payment in lieu of notice (buyout) is not an automatic entitlement and requires mutual written agreement between the employee, department director, and Head of Human Resources. Any leave accrued cannot be offset against the mandatory notice period.

4. Exit Formalities and IT Asset Clearance

On or before the last working day, all company-issued laptops, security tokens, access badges, and hardware peripherals must be returned to IT Operations. Final settlement and salary processing will be initiated within 7 business days following IT clearance.
